Seamanship Course

Cut-off for commitment is March 14, 2016

San Joaquin Delta Power Squadron is offering a Seamanship course. This is the first of the advanced courses offered by USPS.

We will follow the below outlined format for this class:

- A course reservation will be e-mailed out to all squadron and district members
- A course commitment results in a member being billed for all materials* including taxes, freight, etc. regardless of whether or not the course is completed
- Course materials will be distributed when received or mailed to student if desired
- Students will be responsible for self study of all materials
- The Saturday prior to a scheduled squadron meeting, a group study/question and answer session will be given with course power point presentation and any other information, study questions, etc. (Voluntary participation)
- Exam will be given 1 hour prior to squadron meeting the following Monday
- Exams will be ordered approximately 30 days after receipt of course materials and must be returned to HQ USPS by course administrator within 75 days of receipt of the exams

* Cost of course is $60 per person or family unit

Members not able to take the exam when scheduled may contact the SEO to make other arrangements
